

STOKES COUNTY 4-H CLUBS

4-H Ology Science Club:

4-H Ology Science Club is a group for science lovers. This group meets once a month to conduct experiments!

For more info contact Angela King at 591-5059 or kingag@wfu.edu.

4-Service Club:

4-Service is a community service-oriented club! For more information, contact Lori Booze at 414-7971.

Club SHIELD:

Club SHIELD is a club for homeschool students. This club meets in Rural Hall.

For more information, contact Heather Hampton at 969-6749.

North Stokes Shooting Sports Club:

This club is for North Stokes High School students who are interested in shooting sports. For more information, contact Ben Hall at 593-8134.

Quaker Gap Clovers 4-H Club:

Quaker Gap Clovers 4-H Club is a community club focused on service projects and the interests of its members. They do projects related to science, animals, art and more. The club meets the fourth Thursday evening at Quaker Gap Community Building.

For more information, contact Kathy Ford at 994-9650.

School Skippers 4-H Club:

School Skippers is a community club with a diversity of ages that does service projects and studies centered on various themes. For instance, 2012's theme is "Holidays."

For more information, contact Leslie Bray at 529-9857.

Southeastern Stokes Middle School Robotics Team:

This robotics club is for students attending South Stokes Middle School. For more information, contact Robert Birchfield at 591-4371.

Stallion Ridge 4-H Horse Club:

Horse lovers will want to join this club! You do not have to own a horse to participate! For more information, contact Terri Young at 351-4209.

At-Large:

If a child would rather not join a particular club, then he or she is an At-Large Member. At-Large members are allowed full 4-H privileges. For more information, contact Matt Barber at 593-8179.